

Strategies for Becoming a PRIME Leader: Professional Learning for Mathematics Leaders

A one-day pre-session to the 2008 NCTM Regional Meetings
presented by

The National Council of Supervisors of Mathematics (NCSM)

Wednesday, October 15, 2008

Crowne Plaza Cleveland City Centre Hotel
77 St. Clair Ave NE
Cleveland, Ohio 44114

(Session begins at 8:00 am and concludes by 4:00 pm)

This seminar will draw upon best practices designed specifically for providers of professional development and learning for teachers. As a result of participating, local mathematics education leaders will take away a framework for designing professional learning opportunities for mathematics teachers K-12 that support the Curriculum as well as the Teaching and Learning expectations described in the PRIME Leadership Framework.

Content Includes:

- Research Findings on Effective Mathematics Professional Development and collaborative learning
- Results Driven Strategies for Level 2 PRIME Leadership Development and Learning
- A more In-Depth Look at the PRIME Leadership Framework
