

This Old Man (in his prime)

This old man, he played 2
4, 6, 8, 10, 12 for you
With a knick-knack, paddy whack
Havin' a good time
Ain't it great to count by primes?

This old man, he played 3
6, 9, 12 for all to see
With a knick-knack, paddy whack
Havin' a good time
Ain't it great to count by primes?

This old man, he played 5
10, 15 oh sakes alive
With a knick-knack, paddy whack
Havin' a good time
Ain't it great to count by primes?

This old man, he played 7
14 then 10 plus 11
With a knick-knack, paddy whack
Havin' a good time
Ain't it great to count by primes?

This old man, he had fun
Factoring 231
Seven times eleven, all times three
Age of the land of the free.

(pronounced "two-thirty-one")

(stress on Age, the, of, free)
